Committee at odd times, at different times I mean. The think that bothers me here is that here is a fine gentleman who I respect. I respect Henry Ley because I have known him for a number of years. I have been on the Banking Committee when he was Banking Director. I think he is a very capable person. I think he has done a wonderful job where he's been. I admire him. But I for the life of me cannot understand. We have to think of the college that is concerned here, the length of time. The Governor seems to want him regardless of the condition of his health and I respect him for this. Now I'm going to vote for confirmation only on the basis that I'm supporting the Governor of the State of Nebraska in his recommendation. Not my recommendation but his recommendation in this particular instance. Because I think the colleges in the state of Nebraska, the state colleges, should be well served. I do not doubt in any way Henry Ley's capabilities. I admire him. I respect him. I'm a little sorry because I think Henry Ley has deserved, and deserves, and has earned the highest esteem of all of us in a time of relaxation. I know that he will thoroughly enjoy what time he can spend on here. So I'm going to vote but only to support the Governor of the State of Nebraska who tells us this is his man.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I've said it before and I'll say it again, the things that I do here I'm going to be able to live with in the future. I'm not going to temporize or compromise where I think a serious principal is involved and I think one is here involved now. Not just this particular individual but the function of the Legislature and specifically the Committee on Committees in confirming or not confirming appointments by the Governor. When he disagrees with the Legislature, he checks the Legislature by vetoing. He doesn't say the Legislature voted this bill so I'm going to sign it because it's what the Legislature wants. If he disagrees, he vetos and he issues some vetos which I disagree with. There is a responsibility and an obligation that we have in this matter and other matters of governmental Governor's appointments. Senator Mahoney, Senator Hasebroock, Senator Murphy and other who speak in behalf of the gentleman missed the point of everything that I say. I'm not judging what he was. I'm not challenging his integrity. We're not putting him into this position because of what he was. When I was a small child the only individual that black children could have put up to us as a person worthy of emulation was Joe Lewis. And he made it only with his hands by battering other people. But due to the limited opportunities that black people had to participate in anything in this society that was considered worthwhile, he got publicity and we were told that this is a hero. So like any child, I began to look up to him. And it almost destroyed me psychologically when Rocky Marciano destroyed him physically in the ring. Joe Lewis was too old. When he fought Marciano he no longer was what he had been. The same thing with Sugar Ray Robinson in fighting. There comes a time when the trails end has been reached. And if you put a person in a position that he is to fill now on the basis of he was, you're not doing anything worthy for that person and your are demeaning
